FITNESS CENTER INCORPORATES FENG SHUI, RECEIVES IMMEDIATE RESULTS

“Feng Shui helps the environment, and our business is about the body’s environment. We saw this as a win-win. We painted the fitness center on Tuesday and saw immediate results, receiving five new inquiries within a couple hours. Everyone who visits our facility likes the changes that Diana recommended. Clients are more energized and focused. One client made the observation that people were laughing and interacting with one another more so than they had experienced before. I don’t understand how this works, but it works.” said Andy Katzenmoyer, a L.I.F.T. partner and trainer.

Andy is referring to award-winning Feng Shui expert, Diana Garber, President & CEO of Intuitive Concepts. Andy Katzenmoyer, along with his wife Ashleigh, and John Quint (all owners of L.I.F.T), decided to have an analysis completed on their fitness center so their clients could maximize their experience. This included minimizing risks such as injury, an issue they all want to avoid. Andy was injured when playing for the National Football League (NFL); John is a national body-building champion; and Ashleigh has an International Certification as a PPC Strength Coach, is a sports coach for Westerville City Schools, and an instructor at Otterbein College. Andy and John are ACSM certified.

L.I.F.T. (Life Improvement Functional Training) is located at 6061 Chandler Court in Westerville, Ohio. The fitness center is hosting an open house on Sunday, April 5, 2009, from 10am to 2pm. Feel free to stop by and meet Andy, Ashleigh, John, and Diana. For more information about their fitness services, visit their website at lift-fitness.com.
