BUSINESS SAYS FENG SHUI ADVICE WAS STRATEGIC AND PRICELESS

SUNBURY, OH, (March 30, 2010) –

“Your advice has been priceless. Just thinking of where we would be today had we not listened to you when it came to the energy in that Grandview location. Just weeks ago the building was tore down for further growth and parking space. This would have meant we would have been forced to move twice in two years. Nothing is worse for a company than to be uprooted and preoccupied with moving, changes in address, and our customers not knowing where to find us.” Darla King, President of King Business Interiors, directed her statements to Diana Garber, President and Creative Environment Officer© of Intuitive Concepts.

“We had our lease in hand, ready to sign, and you helped us make the right decision to avoid this mistake.” Darla further commented. King Business Interiors hired Intuitive Concepts to perform a building assessment for a location that would eventually house their showroom, offices, and warehouse. Garber suggested they pass on the location due to concerns that a Feng Shui analysis revealed.

King concluded, “So, I thank you for your wisdom and guidance and will continue to work with you for any moves we plan in the future. I have learned a lot from you regarding energy around us and how it influences our world.”
