Diana Garber of Intuitive Concepts Speaks at AAPI Medical Convention in Long Beach

SUNBURY, OH, (April 27, 2012) – Feng Shui Master, Diana Garber, is a distinguished speaker at the 30th convention for the American Association of Physicians of Indian Origin being held from June 27 to July 1 at the Long Beach Convention Center, Long Beach, CA. AAPI is the premier ethnic medical association in the United States with a constituency of 52,000 physicians and 20,000 medical students serving 50 million Americans. AAPI is the umbrella organization for more than 150 member associations nationwide.

Dr. Sunita Kanumury, AAPI President, and Dr. Sudeep Kukreja, AAPI Convention Chair, requested Master Garber speak at the convention because they felt that “her knowledge and expertise will give unique insight into the world of Feng Shui and how it can impact on the medical community.” This is a great honor for Diana because she is the first Feng Shui practitioner to speak at a medical convention in the United States.

This type of accolade is not new to Master Garber who has been granted the distinction of being first in several categories throughout her career: The first Feng Shui Master credentialed by a major university (The Ohio State University); the first Educational Director for the International Feng Shui Guild; the first Feng Shui practitioner whom physician’s referred via prescription to their patients; and the first Feng Shui practitioner to join the Better Business Bureau ... just to name a few.

As President and CEO of Intuitive Concepts, Inc., her unparalleled expertise in energy and risk management includes 30 years of advanced Feng Shui study; and over a decade in business continuity and disaster recovery (as a VP for Bank One), which led to her nomination for the International Peace Prize.

Master Garber applies classic Feng Shui principles as the basis for her practice because she believes that it is important to understand the holistic interaction between humans and their living or working environments, which has earned her another noteworthy honor of working with Tansky Sawmill Toyota -- the only auto dealership in the US to embrace classic Feng Shui principles for their remodels.
